

---

It is agreed and understood that otherwise subject to the terms, exclusions, provisions and conditions contained in the Policy or endorsed thereon, cover shall be extended to include a prolongation of the interruption period due to the deterioration of raw materials, intermediate or finished products or operating media, provided that such deterioration is actually caused by an indemnifiable interruption of or interference with the business in consequence of an indemnifiable accident.